

If you have to make up your own no call list don't weaken ones already inplace.
If any thing make them stronger, like no calls, no exceptions. People in Indiana like what we have already, less people being able to call would be better.
Please don't ruin Indiana's law just to make yourselves look better.